LAST SATURDAY AT THE SUPER TRACK

ROD JOHNSON SCORES SURPRISE NASCAR SPORTSMAN VICTORY

Rod Johnson is one for one in NASCAR sportsman competition, winning his first-ever start in Saturday night's 40-lap feature event. Johnson, who ended up fourth in the 1988 Modified division standings with nine top-five finishes, posted his last victory in a Modified 40-lap feature race on July 21, 1984. It was his first and only win in the division that ended its 10-year history in '88. In other main event action, Jim Marlewski and Russ Beckers posted triumphs while the M.S.R.A. mini stock event went to former champion Gary Ebeling. Garret Yamada scored a victory in the NASCAR mini stock feature.

The NASCAR sportsman main event was nearly completely inverted as fastest qualifier Dave Phipps lined up 21st in the 25 car field with Johnson starting fifth. With pole sitter Larry Woodside leading while working lap three, Herb Reich tried to pass second running Dave Wacker but they touched entering three eventually causing a multi-car pile-up. Johnson, who was fourth at the time, avoided the pileup and found himself in second when the field returned to green. Johnson blew past Woodside two laps later using the outside groove and began to pull away. On lap twelve, Woodside was passed by Craig Rayburn for second which started a chain of cars getting past Woodside. By lap fifteen, Rich DeLong Jr., Will Harper and Phipps had all passed Woodside.

In the following laps, Johnson maintained his lead while Rayburn led a pack with DeLong, Harper, Phipps and Keith Spangler who finally joined the pack around lap 30. Haper, on lap 31, tried to pass DeLong on the outside but ended up losing fourth to Phipps when he got caught by slower traffic. Throughout the remaining laps, Johnson maintained his lead and took the checkered for the win while Rayburn crossed in second just ahead of DeLong, Phipps, Harper and Spangler. In the continuing point battle for the NASCAR sportsman division title, Phipps becomes the new point leader by just one point over Spangler and by just five over Harper.

Jim Marlewski started on the pole for the street stock oval main and led every lap on way to his second feature win this year. Dale White Jr. ran second from the drop of the green until lap 22 when he got sideways in turn four allowing Russ Beckers to pass him down the front stretch but with only three laps remaining Beckers could not catch Marlewski and had to settle for second. White was third with Rip Michaels fourth and Ken Maler fifth.

Jeff Drake moved to the lead from pole position in the street stock figure 8 main event followed by Marlewski and Beckers. After a restart from a yellow flag on lap four, Beckers and Marlewski passed Drake for first and second respectfully as Drake started dropping back. When a red flag came out on lap eight Beckers and Marlewski were still up front followed by White and Steve Nickolai. The final red flag came out on lap twelve when Nickolai hit the third turn wall putting him out of the race. While under red Marlewski also dropped out moving White up to second. Beckers ran out the final three laps and became the fifth driver this year to win his fifth feature win. White came home second with Michaels, John Kirby, Rick Crow and Greg Van Grinsven the only other finishers on the lead lap.

With strong finishes by Beckers and White and disappointing finishes by Nickolai and Rayburn, the street stock division standings were shuffled. Beckers moves from third position in points to become the new point leader, White goes from fourth to second just four behind and Nickolai falls from the point lead to be six points back in third. Finally, Rayburn drops from second to fourth eleven points off the pace. Only two nights of racing for points remain on the street stock schedule.
